

Office - Valhalla, NY

27 Cleveland Street, Valhalla, NY, 10595

Offered at $2,200,000

Welcome to 27 Cleveland Street! Walk into an immaculate office building with social distanced booths and private offices already in place. This is the answer to getting safely back to an office setting with plenty of space and soaring ceilings in a former church. The current owners have spared no expense in outfitting this these offices and booths to make a place that your company would be proud to call home. The three separate entrances offer the unique opportunity to have private offices or areas without interaction with any other occupants. High speed servers and secure wi-fi offers your remote users the ability to connect with the in house staff if your company would be interested in having this type of service available to you. Open floor plans with private offices conveniently located around the three floors. Current company could sell the entire building, lease the entire building or remain with a scaled down portion for their executive offices. 12B4U2C
