Wow what a piece of land! Come and take a look at this ready to develop 2.6 acre parcel with views forever! Located in the Bella Vista Neighborhood in Weldon, this parcel is a find. The area is known for it's large lots, underground utilities, and horse zoning and the parcels near the top of the neighborhood have amazing views. This is one of THOSE parcels! Panoramic lake and valley and mountain views. Better yet, you have water, phone and power all at the corner of the property and the water company is really affordable too! This parcel is also already fenced and had a partially cut driveway and easy access to the rest of the neighborhood and the main road. It is ready for you to develop your home with a view! Or this is a perfect buy and hold for the future, or you can have your horses here a rink or barn, lots of possibilities. It is not often these view lots come up in this neighborhood usually the owners hold onto them and pass them down, and that is the case here but the seller wants to SELL, come and see this great opportunity to own a rare and beautiful property with water, phone and power already in place.
