

Home w/great Outbuilding!

136 Phillips Street, Cameron, NC, 28326

Offered at $260,000

This lovely 1930 cottage has amazing interior architectural features. It's located in the local Historic District, just one block from the center of Cameron's bi annual Antique Street Fair, only 45 min from Raleigh, 30 minutes from Fort Bragg, and 15 minutes from horse country in Southern Pines. A very large detached Workshop/Garage has its own full Kitchen and bath, a separate electric meter and its own mailing address, 166 McPherson Street. The main house has a welcoming Foyer and a fabulous Living Room with original wood floors and incredible domed ceiling. The Kitchen has been updated with newer cabinets, butcher block countertops, a four-door refrigerator, gas range and porcelain tile backsplash. You can relax or entertain on the wide rear deck, or in the stunning octagonal Sun Room! The bedrooms are roomy and well-appointed, with nice closet space and lots of natural light. Recent updates include tub/shower with barn doors, lavatory and bluetooth Fan/light in the tiled bath. Additional information: New HVAC in 2024, water heater in 2025, roof in 2020. The outbuilding shares the home's water service and septic system but has a separate electric meter. Call for your appointment.
