160 Ross Hill Road, Charlestown, RI, 02813

Offered at $3,290,000

Located minutes from some of the most beautiful beaches in New England and with convenient commutes from Massachusetts and New York, the privacy of this 19+ acre sprawling retreat compound in Charlestown/Westerly awaits. Architect and Interior Designer Soheil Tavakoli brought the seller's vision to life by capturing and combining both Persian and Native American influences. Completed in 2018, there is a sense of escape to a different time and place when inside this 3,000+ square foot custom built home / oasis. All of the indoor and outdoor living spaces are works of art and share a distinct connection to nature. The spacious dining room with ceramic tile flooring is adorned with an indoor fountain bordered by sculptured bas-relief. A stone fireplace by the kitchen extends warmth to the sitting/dining area. A faceted dome shaped ceiling with celestial lighting and skylight is a unique and architectural beauty and a focal point of the home. There are three private bedrooms, all ensuite including a large primary retreat with a sitting area and courtyard vistas. Enjoy the outdoors on the sweeping, covered terrace overlooking the natural grounds, the many different entertaining areas with custom fountains and waterfalls. Miles of hiking begins at your doorstep, breathe in fresh air on the outdoor yoga platform. Separate bathhouse for convenience/expansion potential. Abuts the Shelter Harbor Golf Club - private clubhouse potential! Easily accessible drive from NYC, PVD and BOSTON.
