

A Fairytale Cottage tucked away in Martin's Creek...

1731 Howell Rd, Easton, PA, 18040

Offered at $549,900

A Fairytale Cottage tucked away in Martin's Creek. Looking for a rare find? A one-of-a-kind property full of charm and craftsmanship? Look no further. This 150-year-old home has been lovingly restored to highlight its exceptional charm and beauty. Clad in traditional white stucco with flower-filled window boxes and rose-covered arbors it has the look and feel of a fairytale cottage. A comfortable breakfast nook invites you into a sun filled kitchen featuring original custom cabinetry. With its buff tile floor and blue and white Delft tiled backsplash, you feel as if you've entered a cottage in the Cotswolds. The hand-crafted carpentry continues in the dining room with custom moldings and a built-in China cabinet. All-wood floors lead into the living room that features built-in bookcases surrounding a classic bay window. For a quiet read step into the cozy study encircled with whimsical wrap-around bookshelves and a wood-burning fireplace faced with hand-crafted Mercer tiles. French doors lead out to a covered porch that overlooks a charming, tiered garden. Settle in with an iced tea and rocking chair in the four-season sun porch looking out to a majestic view of woodland and hill side. Or sit with a hot chocolate in winter as you gaze out at a snow-covered wonderland. This room brings nature in and its southern exposure allows for all season gardening in pots and containers. A convenient half bath completes the downstairs. Upstairs there is primary bedroom with cathedral ceiling and two additional bedrooms. (one currently used as a craft room). A large main bathroom features two sinks, a built-in linen closet and a vintage claw foot tub. A secluded large backyard offers a serene landscape surrounded by mature trees and shrubs. The garden planted with roses and perennials steps down onto a brick patio and custom-made pergola. A two-car garage is also clad in stucco with matching window-boxes filled with flowers. A private entrance leads to two large rooms and a full bath on the upper-level offering a variety of options for use, such as an office, art studio, or guest/extended family-accommodations. Just 90 minutes from both New York City and Philadelphia this unique one-of-a-kind property is located 7 miles north of Easton in the peaceful village of Martins Creek.
