

Contemporary, Colonial, Detached - MEDFORD, NJ

22 Reeves Station, Medford, NJ, 08055

Offered at $1,850,000

Built in tune with its surroundings & beyond the private entrance, this custom built 6553+ Sq. Ft. masterpiece is a marvel of elegance. This residence provides a unique blend of quality comfort, a variety of living spaces, a classic architectural style & combines stunning natural surroundings with the inimitable touch of sophisticated comfort. Spanning approximately 72 acres, the interior of the residence displays abundant customized broad casement windows that grace the living & bedroom areas with plentiful natural light. Inspired design and pristine surrounds create a relaxing family retreat. Simply stated, this is an exquisite five to six Bedroom, four & one half bath, 3 car garage, in addition to a 5 Bay Carriage house 60'x22' that features a 2nd level where you have many options to customize or use in it's present design, that overlooks a regulation size tennis court. Absolute seclusion is guaranteed with the estate's hidden location, accessible by a private road. Built with a refreshingly open and flowing design, you enter through a lovely covered front porch to a stunning oak & marble open foyer. The living room is right off the foyer...with window designs that simply are striking, hardwood floors, & custom plaster crown molding. Continuing through the foyer there's a powder room...leading to the heart of the home which is a spectacular family room with unimaginable views. The family room has recessed lighting, a wet bar, and a southern orientation, which makes for a delightful daytime setting all the time. Adjacent to the family room is the connoisseur's gourmet kitchen. First there's a delightful kitchen nook, numerous custom designed kitchen cabinets, countertops, upscale appliances, Jenn-air electric cooktop, sub-zero refrigerator, built-in microwave, trash compactor, a center island with a sink, electric, and sufficient seating, in addition to the kitchen nook accented by casement windows. The Study is beautifully crafted with oak boxed beam squares, along with hardwood floors. To add to the masterfully integrated designed, is a exercise room with track lighting, just off the study, a full bath & separate hot tub room surrounded with casement windows, & fantastic views. An exterior door leads to the patio & pool area. The first floor also consists of dining room, over-sized laundry room, that includes a double sink, laundry chute, cabinets, & countertop. The mechanical room has a fire metal door, in addition to the mud room (extra cabinet, refrigerator) which has direct access to the garage and backyard. The second floor is accessible off the foyer or the rear staircase, which is off the mudroom. There's an extra room, with built in desk, which could be used for many uses (office, sewing, hobby, library, or bedroom). The spacious game room is located over the garage, which has an independent bedroom. There's a very spacious main bath, with a freestanding clawfoot Kohler Tub & independent shower stall. Bedroom #2 is three steps up, which once again could be used for many uses or for guests. Bedroom #3 has a double closet. A Jack & Jill Bath connects both Bedrooms #4 & #5 which makes it accessible to each & both have independent balconies. This J&J bath has dual sinks, shower stall, & a freestanding tub. One lovely feature are windows overlooking the backyard. The primary bedroom suite, with remote controlled blinds, has two walk in closets, linen closets, high ceilings, bidet, two toilets, double sinks, jacuzzi and shower stall. The third story comprises a very open recreation room, with skylights and access to generous dry attic storage. There's significant storage space throughout, many closets, a walk-in cedar closet on the second floor. There's a security announcement chime that indicates a vehicle is close to many surrounding High End retailers, restaurants & other amenities. Great School District. Warmth & personality are the defining factors of this stunning estate.
