Ropers or horse lovers heaven! Just a half mile from Western Trails Ranch Arena and less than a mile from the Horns and Hooves Arena is your 3.91 acre property. Buyer to install, at buyers expense, the appropriate cistern and equipment to feed subject property. This cost should be far less than drilling new well. Electrical power is literally at the property line so Electrical cost should be very minimal. This subject property does have utility easement and flood that runs through the property but still has a decent amount of very usable square footage to work with.
