

43238 Brown Road, Baker City, OR, 97814

Offered at $520,000

The Brown Road Property is a rare find for those looking to build a home on a property with great mountain views, a creek, and less than a fifteen-minute drive to the town of Baker City. Exceptional views of the Elkhorn Mountains to the West and the Eagle Cap Wilderness to the Northeast. The property includes a class 4 single wide mobile home built in 1977, complete with well, septic system, and electrical transformer. The land has water rights and is currently being irrigated. Mill Creek runs through the property and is located near the mobile home. The property has been historically utilized to raise livestock and hay. It is located in the Baker Valley near the base of the Elkhorn Mountain Range.
