

Dutch,Gambrel, Deeded - Hudson, NY

442 Prospect Street, Hudson, NY, 12534

Offered at $425,000

Located a few short blocks to Warren Street and in the neighborhood of the Hudson Library and Historic Depot District redevelopment zone, sits this diamond in the rough Dutch colonial style home. Partially gutted but ready to be brought back to its original glory with a contemporary layout. Large windows throughout brings an abundance of natural lighting in. An abundance of beautiful detailing has been preserved, including mouldings, doors, trim and decorative handrail to the second floor. The attic is a full walkup with windows on both ends allowing for functional storage or additional uses. A classic enclosed front porch provides for additional seasonal living while a full dry basement adds to the storage and use potential. Beautiful views to the south and west from the second floor rooms. Come be a part of the Hudson renaissance.
