

5 Tudor City Place 1301, New York, NY, 10017

Offered at $379,000

Located in one of Tudor City's most prestigious pre-war buildings, this stunning studio has been renovated to perfection. It faces North with beautiful views of the United Nations and the East River. As you walk in, there is a California closet to your left and also a utility closet. On your right, there is a bath reminiscent of an elegant Italian style with matching tiles. Stained hardwood floors and high beamed ceilings are throughout this spacious home. A chic white marble countertop and backsplash kitchen consists of stainless appliances including a Bosch dishwasher and full size Blomberg fridge. A custom queen size murphy bed is discreetly built-in to enlarge the space with an adjacent closet for extra storage and recessed lighting above the bed. Sweetly tucked away by the window is an entertainment and office area that gazes out onto the gorgeous view. The building's amenities include a full-time doorman, utilities included in the maintenance, a convenience store located in the renovated lobby, and a huge gym and laundry room that overlook the water. Tudor City is an enclave to itself consisting of 2 beautiful parks, dry cleaners, a post office, and restaurants. It is located near Grand Central and the United Nations. Pets are welcome.
