

Traditional, Detached - HARRISBURG, PA

5455 N Front Street, Harrisburg, PA, 17110

Offered at $500,000

A new septic system . This is one of a kind home built in 1870 and went through major renovation around 1990. including adding an attached 6 car garage with full second floor to the existing 2 car garage. The home is located in the beautiful FortHunter section with their new walking and biking trail along the river, The original hard wood floors were saved in the living and dining room and entry hall. The beautiful natural finished stair rail from the foyer to the third floor was saved and refinished. Most of the original wood doors were saved and used. A new gourmet kitchen was installed with a private eating nook and L shaped island plus a matching credenza unit. A custom made metal hood for over the range. There is a laundry area off of the kitchen. The large den was added with its own heating system, skylight, patio doors to the yard and a full bath. The master suite was repositioned to include an ensuite bath sitting room and plenty of closet space. 2 other bedrooms on the 2nd floor with full bath and 1 bedroom plus den/flex room on the third floor with a full bath. The home was fitted with new HVAC gas 90% furnace heating system and central air conditioning along with the electric being updated. A great home for the car enthusiast and a new home owner looking for a home with a lot of charm and old world character.
