

1.5 Story, Farmhouse - Tuscola, IL

608 N Main Street, Tuscola, IL, 61953

Offered at $89,500

Centrally located on Main Street, this home is just blocks from downtown and beautiful Ervin Park and the city pool. The brick and tree lined street is a great setting. Inside you find the charm of homes built in the late 1890s featuring well preserved wood trim and features. This has been a family home and offers plenty of space and flexibility for the next owners with the option of four or five bedrooms. The front porch is great for relaxing, watching community parades or just enjoying people passing by. There is plenty of family space with a living and family room downstairs, along with a den/bedroom. All boasting hardwood floors under the carpet. The dining room also has hardwood floors and is great for large family gatherings. The kitchen has plenty of room for the chef and there is also a downstairs bath. Upstairs are four bedrooms and another full bath. There's no lack of storage in the basement and the yard is deep enough to add a garage if desired. There's still some updates that could be made, but the furnace was replaced in 2020, water heater in 2016 and roof in 2014. Come take a look at the possibilities this home offers.
