When finished up with supper, cozy up to one of the three stone propane fireplaces and enjoy all the history that the lodge holds around every corner. From the black and white pictures of past and present cowboys, to the animal mounts on the wall, every object holds its own story which makes this property so unique. Guest Rooms Seven bedrooms with their own private bathrooms, await you upstairs with four rooms having outdoor access to the wraparound deck. The large glass windows surrounding the fireplace, showcase the beautiful views of the North Loup River and all the local wildlife in the area. With direct access to the outside grounds, the lower level of the lodge includes 3 additional bedrooms, 2 full bathrooms, a second lounging area with propane fireplace, and an attached garage with additional storage space.
