Tbd Vinson Hollow Rd Off Road, Bybee, TN, 37713

Offered at $45,000

This property is truly unique and perfect for someone looking for a remote getaway or a secluded mountain property. This 10.42 acres sits on a mountain and with some clearing at the top you could have panoramic views for miles. From the top of the mountain you can see the French Broad River. As you drive down Vinson Hollow Road you will feel what drew settlers to east Tennessee years ago. Driving out to the property on the winding one lane road bordered by the quaint mountain streams on either side, it feels like you're traveling back through time to a place that hasn't changed much for ages. If you're drawn to a slower and quieter pace of life this property checks all those boxes. It's hard to find acreage in East Tennessee priced as low as this. Access to the property is through a deeded Right of Way off of Vinson Hollow Road that serves this property and a couple others. Currently the Right of way does not have a road cut in and you will not see a sign at the roadside. The approximate location of the right of way that leads to the property is at the three-way intersection where Howard Road meets Vinson Hollow Road. If traveling on Vinson Road continue up the mountain after you cross Howard Road. All of the photos in the listing are drone photos, ground photos are not available due to accessibility of the photographer.
